The 65th National Anniversary Celebration cum HKFW Six Arts Concert for the Inauguration of its Orchestra and Choir was successfully held at Hong Kong Cultural Centre Concert Hall on 9 September, attracting the attendance of over 1200 participants. Guests of the concert included Government Officials, Councilors, representatives of National People's Congress, Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference members, cadres of the Liaison Office of the CPG in the HKSAR and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the PRC in the HKSAR, and representatives of different organizations in Hong Kong, as well as Honorary Presidents, Honorary Vice Presidents, and members of HKFW.

The concert marked the inauguration of the HKFW Six Arts Orchestra and Choir. The Six Arts Orchestra, the first all-female professional orchestra in Hong Kong, is conducted by Dr. Jennifer Ho and all the music players are members of the HKFW. In addition, we are honored to invite Ms. Nancy Loo, a renowned pianist, to perform "Caprice on the Moonlight over Spring River (arranged by Mr. Doming Lam)", which is a premiere in Hong Kong, and jointly performed with Six Arts Orchestra. And it is also our honor to have a master vocalist Ms. Barbara Fei conducting "HKFW Six Arts Choir" to perform famous Chinese and English folk songs with the theme of "the Songs of Flowers".

In her welcoming speech, HKFW Chairperson Dr. Peggy Lam expressed her gratitude to all the guests who participated in the celebration of 65th National Anniversary and witnessed the inauguration of the HKFW Six Arts Orchestra and Choir. Also, one of the objectives of the concert is to raise fund for the newly established HKFW Six Arts Charity Trust. With the support of the Trust, the Six Arts Orchestra is endeavored to serve the Hong Kong community through outreach concerts and promote talented local female musicians. Going forward, HKFW is dedicated to promote the development of other areas of "Six Arts" which cover Visual Arts, Performing Arts, Literary Arts, etc.

HKFW would like to express sincere thanks to all the individuals and parties concerned for their great support to this concert.
