Guests of honour together with HKFW Honorary Advisors, Supervising Advisors and Executive Committee members.

To celebrate the 108th International Women's day, HKFW initiated the unity of 148 women organizations from various sectors to hold a cocktail reception on 21 March 2018 at the Government House. Over 300 guests attended, including members of the National People's Congress and Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference, officials from Liaison Office of the CPG in HKSAR and HKSAR Government, Consulate Generals and wives, celebrities and leaders of women organizations.

Ms. Carrie Lam, the Honorary Patron of the HKFW and Chief Executive of the HKSAR, delivered a speech. She conveyed her appreciation to HKFW's contribution in promoting the sustainability of women's welfare for years such as the organization of a number of seminars and forums to nurture women's patriotism to Hong Kong and to the motherland, running of the Young Women Actualization Training Programme to lead young women to become more aware of the need to care and serve the society and to identify talent among them. She mentioned that at the closing meeting of the 13th National People's Congress, President Xi Jinping pointed out that Hong Kong should strengthen its peoples' national consciousness and patriotism in order to safeguard Hong Kong's long-term prosperity and stability. She wished that HKFW under the leadership of Chairperson Pansy Ho would make greater efforts to achieve this.

Ms. Xia Jie, the Vice Chairman of the All-China Women's Federation and Secretary of the Secretariat, delivered a speech to encourage women and sisters from all walks of life to strive for self-improvement, to maintain harmony and stability of Hong Kong so as to become the indispensable strength for the development of HKSAR.
