

Foreword

To gain an edge in this competitive world, Hong Kong as a cosmopolitan city must strive to strengthen, upgrade and enhance the quality of its people. In step with the up-rising social status of women, the Hong Kong Federation of Women (HKFW) takes the initiative of providing all-round leadership training to future women leaders of Hong Kong, developing their talents, strengths and abilities.

Objectives Towards Leadership Excellence

- To instill in young women a sense of deep rooting in Hong Kong; to arise in them a passion for Hong Kong and Mainland China and to broaden their scope of international vision;
- To cultivate leadership ability in young women, to raise their awareness of community affairs and to encourage them to take active roles in serving their community;
- To enhance and liaise networking and cultural exchange between women of different social background in Hong Kong and China.

Content

Enhancement of leadership ability, management skills, interpersonal skills, social networking skills, and understanding of Mainland China through :

- Seminars by renown political, commercial and professional persons in Hong Kong;
- Role play at Legislative Council Chamber to further understand the work of Legislative Council (LegCo) where a role play on LegCo Council Meeting will take place;
- Visits to Hong Kong enterprises established in China to gain knowledge on entrepreneurship;
- Workshops, sharing sessions, talks and training camp to facilitate exchange with successful people.
